INTRODUCTION

Le but de cette bibliographie est d'identifier la documentation pertinente à la vérification informatique. A l'exception de quelques références jugées particulièrement appropriées, les documents signalés ont été publiés depuis 1980. La grande partie des documents résument la réalité américaine; un effort spécial fut déployé pour identifier des documents québécois, canadiens ou de langue française. Le lecteur remarquera que la plupart des références sont à des articles de périodiques et qu'il y a quelques volumes et documents audiovisuels sur le sujet.

Plusieurs sources d'information ont été consultées lors de la cueillette des données. Le fichier de l'Université Laval et le fichier collectif des bibliothèques du gouvernement du Québec ont été dépouillés. Les index Computer literature Index, Computer Books and Serials in Print et Data Processing Digest ont fait l'objet d'une consultation sérieuse. L'identification bibliographique aurait été incomplète si on n'avait pas interrogé certaines bases de données. On a donc procédé à l'interrogation des bases PASCAL, Computer Database, NTIS, Repère et AV-Online.

Cette bibliographie est composée de deux parties. Dans la première partie, le lecteur trouvera des références à des revues qui sont entièrement consacrées à la notion et aux pratiques de la vérification informatique. Ensuite, il trouvera les références bibliographiques organisées par ordre alphabétique d'auteur.
